INTERGEDI UPDATES

- SciDis project:

In October 2022, the InterGedi team started working on our new project “Processes of recontextualisation in the transfer of knowledge: A pragmatic, linguistic and multimodal study of digital scientific discourse for dissemination purposes” (SciDis), granted by the Ministerio de Ciencia e Innovación (PID2021 - 122303NB-I00). Since then, we have been having regular meetings for the compilation of the project’s database and corpus. For more information about the SciDis project, click here.

- InterGedi meetup | 12th December 2022

We had an online meeting with our international colleagues Marina Bondi (Università degli Studi di Modena e Reggio Emilia), Jan Engberg (Aarhus Universitet), Carmen Daniela Maier (Aarhus Universitet) and Suganthi John (University of Birmingham), in which we discussed key aspects of the new project and exchanging views on criteria to be considered in the compilation of our SciDis database and future corpus.

- Multimodality content session | 13th December 2022

Isabel Corona delivered a content session focused on multimodality, in which she explored some key concepts and preconceptions, and she addressed a variety of inquiries posed by the InterGedi team members.
