InterGedi Team

🗨️ We are delighted to share some excellent news for our InterGEDI team. From now until 2030, we begin to undertake our new research project, entitled “Framing digital trust: Discursive mechanisms in expert knowledge dissemination (TrustEDD)”, sponsored by the Ministry of Science, Innovation and Universities (PID2025-168803NB-I00).

The Diccionario de Partículas Discursivas del Español, coordinated by Briz et al., has been awarded the Premio Archiletras (V Edition), in the category of Research/Innovation Award. Dr Silvia Murillo-Ornat has collaborated on this project from the beginning, translating the particles into English. The award recognizes this work as an indispensable resource of reference for understanding the workings of discursive connectors and operators.

PhD candidate Alba Ansó-Millán is back from a productive research stay (April-July 2026) supervised by Prof Jan Engberg at the Institut for Kommunikation og Kultur (Aarhus, Denmark).

Dr Isabel Herrando-Rodrigo and Dr Suganthi John are contributing an oral presentation to the 59th Annual Conference of the British Association of Applied Linguistics (BAAL 2026), taking place between September 1st-3rd 2026 at Aston University (UK).

Between the 9th and the 11th of September 2026, PhD candidate Luis Martínez-Kleiser and Dr Paula Wood-Borque will participate in the Second Language Teacher Education Conference (SLTED 2026), held at the University of Edinburgh (UK).

At the end of this month, on Friday 25th, Dr María Fanlo-Piniés and PhD candidates Luis Martínez-Kleiser, Irene Puente and Alba Ansó-Millán will represent InterGEDI at the European Researchers' Night 2026, both in Huesca and at CaixaForum Zaragoza. Throughout that afternoon and evening, there will be a number of dissemination events aimed at young, adolescent and adult audiences.
